

Charlemont Board of Health Minutes
BOH Minutes July 28, 2021
Zoom

Present: Doug Telling, Rob Lingle, Bill Harker

Absent: none

Guest: Randy Crochier

Called to Order at 6:00 pm

--Telling announced that the search committee for the new CPHS Program Manager unanimously recommended to Phoebe Walker that Randy Crochier be hired. This decision was agreed to by Linda Dunlavy.

--Harker moved and Lingle seconded a motion to approve the minutes of 4/28/21 and 6/23/21. Passed 3-0

--Lingle offered ideas for mosquito education: kiosk at the Transfer Station, Avery's, and elections; work with the Hawlemont nurse to educate students and staff on threats from mosquitos and ticks and ways to mitigate those dangers. Telling suggested she could work with Good Neighbors.

--Telling moved and Harker seconded a motion for Telling serve as the board representative to CPHS and Lingle serve as the alternate. Passed 3-0

--Lingle recommends everyone wear masks in buildings.

--Telling reported that there are five cases in the CPHS district.

--Health Agent report:

- Announced the hiring of Meg Ryan as the new full-time public nurse.
- He is working on the job description for a third health agent
- Many Title V inspections requests
- Due to statements by Tom Leue, Crochier is randomly showing up at Leue's activities scheduled with Lisa Danek Burke. Crochier said that the agents will continue to fairly scrutinize Leue's work, especially given the past problems.
- Crochier announced an improved inspection software, called Winwam.

Harker moved and Telling seconded a motion to adjourn. Passed 3-0

Meeting adjourned at 6:35 pm
