--Telling moved and Lingle seconded a motion to cancel the November and December meetings.
Passed 2-0

--Crochier gave the health agent report

- Still a lot of Title V and Perc work
- River Café opening soon at site of former Cold River Café
- Crochier and Lisa Danek Burke recently attended a MHOA Conference
- A new health agent and a community health educator will begin on November 1
- Allergen training is available at Berkshire AHEC

--Lingle noted that practical work for those with masters of public health helps them in honing skills in working with people in towns and applying knowledge.

--Mae Tanner is interested in joining the board. She has been in town for two years; is an EMT on the ambulance; was a history/biology undergraduate major; is involved in community work with health care. Lingle asked if she agrees to be nominated to join the board. She does. He also invited her to the CPHS oversight meeting. Telling moved and Lingle seconded a motion to recommend her to the Select Board for appointment. Passed 2-0.

Telling moved and Lingle seconded a motion to adjourn. Passed 2-0.
